

Novotel Paris les Halles – 17>18/12/2015

ADDICTION & OFFENDING INNOVATIVE JUDICIAL TREATMENT

THURSDAY, 17 TH DECEMBER

9:00-9:30 Participants' registration

9:30-10:00 Seminar opening

Nathalie MALET, Member of the Judiciary, Project Manager, French National School for the Judiciary, Paris, France

Katia DUBREUIL, Member of the Judiciary, Project Manager, Interministerial mission for the fight against drugs and drug addiction, Paris, France

Presentation of the project

Jean-Philippe VICENTINI, Prosecutor at the court of Beauvais, France

Drug misuse and crime

Martine H-EVANS, Professor of law and criminology, University of Reims, France

SESSION I – THEORETICAL AND HISTORICAL BACKGROUND : GENESIS OF SPECIALISED COURTS AND JUDICIAL TREATMENT OF ADDICTIONS

10:00-10:45 The theoretical framework of Problem Solving Courts

David WEXLER, Professor, University of Porto Rico

11:45-11:15 The historical origin of Problem Solving Court : Grassroots Courts

Peggy HORA, Judge, Superior Court of California, USA

11:15-11:30 Discussion with the audience

11:30-11:45 Coffee break

11:45-12:15 The added bonus of Judicial supervision

Martine H-EVANS, Professor, University of Reims, France

12:15-12:30 Discussion with the audience

12:30-14:00 Lunch (Novotel Paris les Halles)

SESSION II – PROBLEM SOLVING COURT IN PRACTICE

14:00-14:30 Do they work?

Brook KEARLEY, Department of Criminology and Criminal Justice, University of Maryland, USA

14:30-15:30 What works?

Jean-Pierre GUAY, Professor, School of Criminology, University of Montréal, Canada

Martine H-EVANS, Professor, University of Reims, France

15:30-16:00 Discussion with the audience

16:00-16:30 Coffee break

16:30-17:00 How should we measure problem solving courts?

Jean-Pierre GUAY, Professor, School of Criminology, University of Montréal, Canada

17:00-17:30 New Zealand's example : « Going Down Under »

Lisa TREMEWAN, Judge, Auckland, New Zealand

17:30-18:00 Discussion with the audience

18:00-20:00 Group picture - Cocktail and diner (Novotel Paris les Halles)

FRIDAY, 18 TH DECEMBER

9:00-9:30 Participants' registration

SESSION III – KEY STAKEHOLDERS

9:30-10:00 Why good people are needed and how to recruit them?

David WEXLER, Professor, University of Porto Rico

Peggy HORA, Judge, Superior Court of California, USA

Caroline COOPER, Professor, School of Public Affairs, American University, Washington, USA

10:00-10:30 Problem Solving Courts « à la française » : the Sentences' Implementation Judge

Martine H-EVANS, Professor, University of Reims, France

10:30-11:00 French experimentation : The Bobigny Drug Court Pilot

Ruth GOZLAN, Project Manager, Interministerial mission for the fight against drugs and drug addiction, Paris, France

11:00-11:15 Discussion with the audience

11:15-11:30 Coffee break

11:30-12:00 Belgium's example

Annemieke SERLIPPENS, Prosecutor, Drugtreatment Court, Ghent, Belgium

Jorn DANGREAU, Judge, Drugtreatment Court, Ghent, Belgium

12:00-12:15 Discussion with the audience

12:15-13:30 Lunch (Novotel Paris les Halles)

SESSION IV – PARTNERSHIP AND COLLABORATION

13:30-14:30 How the Drug Courts do it?

Martine H-EVANS, Professor, University of Reims, France

Caroline COOPER, Professor, School of Public Affairs, American University, Washington, USA

14:30-15:00 Scottish's example

Lindsay WOOD, Sheriff, Glasgow Sheriff Court, Scotland

15:00-15:30 A Prosecutor led local program

Jean-Philippe VICENTINI, Prosecutor at the court of Beauvais, France

15:30-15:45 Discussion with the audience

15:45-16:15 Coffee break

SESSION V – TRANSPOSE A GOOD MODEL

16:15-16:45 Mainstreaming and integrating a pilot program

Valérie RAINE, Statewide Drug Court Coordinator, Center for Court Innovation, USA

16:45-17:15 How to transplant Problem Solving Justice?

Martine H-EVANS, Professor, University of Reims, France

17:15-17:30 Discussion with the audience

17:30-18:00 Seminar conclusion by the chairpersons

Martine H-EVANS, Professor, University of Reims, France

Jean-Philippe VICENTINI, Prosecutor at the court of Beauvais, France

18:00 Seminar ending

